

Elab

Functionalities of the system.

- 1) The system will allow researchers upload their research papers
- 2) The system will allow the audience to download research papers.
- 3) The system will provide provision for running simulations of practical projects done by researchers.
- 4) The system will provide provision for clients/audience to enter their research topics which they want researchers to do for them.
- 5) The system will have provision for allowing clients/audience to schedule appointment with researcher online.
- 6) Students will sign-up online for the online classes.
- 7) The system will have online classes
- 8) The system will have online exams.
- 9) The system will generate certificates for those students who have undertaken courses from the Elab.
- 10) The system will provide provision for clients to buy digital electronic components online.
- 11) The system will provide for online seminars and workshops on technology.